A Bible for Every Christian

Samuel, a high school student in M Village, Myanmar prayed to God for a miracle: that he would have his own Bible. He finally received his own Bible this year. "Thank you so much for providing this spiritual food to my soul," he said

"My name is Ruth. I attend Phual Church. I have never had the Bible before, as it is almost impossible to come by. But I felt that my spiritual life was not strong and I was missing much of what God wanted for me and from me. But I received a Bible at the Chin Bible give-away and I want to thank you for it. I love it and it gives me strength when I am weak. I have been longing my whole life to have a Bible for my personal use. So I have prayed to God and God has answered my prayers through you. I read my Bible every day and I meditate on what I read. It lifts my life up again and brings me hope when I am going through depression. I came to realize the greatness of God through reading His Living Word. How precious! Reading the Bible made me understand about God's wonderful creation of man. Even me! I was created in the image of God and allowed to live a life with purpose. There is nothing more to say than the words 'Thank you!'"

- Ruth, Phual Church, Myanmar (Burma)

My name is Lian Khen Dal and I live in Kalaymyo. I am now sixty years old and all my life is so misery. My wife and I had eight children, but all of them died. When my children died I said to myself, "If God is really there, He would not harm me so much. So it is better to go back to my ancestor's religion. Because the God whom I worship now cannot bless me."

Whenever our pastor visited our home I said, "There is no God and I will never go to church." One Sunday our pastor came to our home and he invited me to go to church and he said, "Today we are going to give you a Holy Bible." So I just did what he said and I went to the church. During the worship service our pastor encouraged us to read the Bible saying, "All the answers of your doubts will be found in the Bible."

After the service was over I went home with a Bible and I just threw the Bible on the couch. My wife took the Bible and started reading it. Some days later she asked me, "Are you really so against reading the Bible?" I grudgingly opened the Bible and it opened to the Book of Job. From the first chapter I became very interested, because Job's sufferings and mine were similar. This helped me to stop feeling so sorry for myself. After reading more of the Bible I realized that there is a God and He does things according to His own will, not the way I want it all the time. But He wants us to become stronger, and that can happen through hard times. So reading the Word of God strengthened me and brought me back to faith in Jesus Christ. My greatest thanks go to those who brought Holy Bibles here to be given away for free. Through this Bible God has turned me away from my sin and back unto Jesus and has saved my soul.
